

Poppy Park at Maplewood

The newly named Poppy Park toddler play area is now open at Maplewood, just off Catsash Road. It is aimed at children aged 3-7 and has some lovely play equipment to keep younger children playing happily, as well as benches where parents can sit and watch.

Poppy Park was officially opened on Friday 8th July by The Mayor and Mayoress of Newport, David & Carol Atwell. The afternoon was a great success with many children, their parents and grandparents enjoying the new toddler play park. They especially enjoyed the free face-painting, balloon-modelling, ice creams and goody bags provided by Langstone Community Council.

The Centenary Field will have been opened by the time this is printed - look out for the next edition of Community First for more photos
